Training and Scholarship Programmes 2020 – Programme Brief

Short-term Training Fellowship for Tate Intensive 2020
- To support one local arts administrator, who possesses work experience in art galleries, museums and related cultural institutions, to participate in the Tate Intensive 2020 programme from 5 to 10 July 2020 at Tate, London, UK
- The programme includes talks conducted by experienced museum practitioners and arts leaders, workshops, discussions and cultural visits under the theme of “The Power of Play”
- The total value of the fellowship is HK$47,000 to cover the tuition fee, a round trip economy class flight ticket, local accommodation, transportation and subsistence cost

Application Deadline: 6:00pm, 30 January 2020 (Thursday)

Local Arts Administration Scholarships 2020
- To support arts administrators to pursue arts administration related master courses/professional programmes or business administration related professional programmes at local universities or tertiary institutions
- Intended programme must commence within the period from 1 April 2020 to 31 March 2021
- Each scholarship will cover the tuition fees of the chosen programme with a maximum amount of HK$90,000

Application Deadline: 6:00pm, 7 February 2020 (Friday)

Overseas & Mainland Arts Administration Scholarships 2020
- To support arts administrators to pursue taught master courses in relation to arts administration at accredited institutions in the Mainland or overseas
- Intended programme must commence within the period from 1 August 2020 to 31 July 2021
- Each scholarship mainly covers a round-trip economy class flight ticket, subsistence allowance and tuition fee etc. with a maximum amount of HK$450,000. The granted amount of the scholarship is subject to tuition fee and living allowance of the studying region/country of each selected applicant

Application Deadline: 6:00pm, 7 February 2020 (Friday)

Hong Kong Scholarship for Professional Attachment to Public Programmes at Tate Modern 2020
- To support one local curator or arts manager to take part in a 22-week attachment on a full-time basis from mid-September 2020 to mid-February 2021 in the Public Programme Team at Learning Department of Tate Modern
- The selected candidate will attach as assistant curator, contributing to the development, planning, delivery and evaluation of the cross-site public programmes of Tate Modern and Tate Britain, and the strategic partnerships initiative
- A bursary of HK$168,000 will be provided to the selected candidate to cover a round trip economy class flight ticket, local accommodation, transportation and subsistence during the placement period

Application Deadline: 6:00pm, 17 February 2020 (Monday)

More Programme Details: