Bei Shan Tang Foundation has generously donated a scholarship tenable at Stanford Graduate School of Education for an outstanding CUHK graduate to pursue one of the following full-time taught Master's degrees in the 2027/28 academic year. Applicants from any academic discipline may apply, although the designated programs are education-related.

- Curriculum and Teacher Education
- Global and Comparative Education
- International Education Policy Analysis
- Learning Design and Technology
- Policy, Organization, and Leadership Studies
- Stanford Teacher Education Program

* Subject to whether the degree program will admit new students for 2027/28. Please visit the website of the Stanford Graduate School of Education at http://ed.stanford.edu/ for information on the relevant Master's programs.

❖ Value of the Scholarship

The Scholarship will basically cover Stanford's tuition fee and an economy-class return airfare. A maintenance allowance may be provided, subject to demonstrated financial need.

❖ Eligibility

- Applicants should be Hong Kong permanent residents.
- Applicants should be graduates of CUHK within the past ten years (i.e. Graduates of 2016 to 2025 classes), or final-year postgraduate students of CUHK in the 2026/27 academic year. (Hence, bachelor's graduates in 2026 and final-year undergraduates are not eligible.)
- Full-time work experience is not mandatory for the Scholarship but is advantageous. (Note: Some Stanford's programs give preference to candidates with relevant professional backgrounds, and admission is less common without it.)
- Please refer to the "Information Sheet" for all eligibility requirements.

❖ Application
