Notes on Handling of Information and Personal Data Supplied in the Application Form

The data in this application form is provided by the applicant voluntarily. The applicant may be asked to provide additional information to aid the Foundation in processing the application.

The personal data provided by the applicant in this application form will be retained by the Foundation for the purpose of processing this application, as well as compiling relevant statistics and materials for publicity and review of the Scholarship. The data may be disclosed to other organisations (including but not limited to universities/tertiary institutions) for the same purpose.

When submitting and signing this application form, the applicant authorises the Foundation to contact any organisations (including but not limited to secondary schools, educational institutions) for the purpose of obtaining and verifying the information of the applicant.

Declaration by Applicant

The Scholarship is granted to selected candidates on the basis of the intended or current programme(s) and institution(s) as provided/updated by him/her in the application form before the selection interview. If there is any subsequent change in the intended or current programme and/or institution of study after the selection result is announced and/or presentation of scholarship is made, prior approval of the Foundation must be obtained. In the event that the recipient is found guilty of a criminal offence or involved in illegal acts or behaviour that disrupt social order, the Foundation reserves the right not to grant the scholarship.

I declare that the information given in this application form, to the best of my belief, is true, complete and correct. I understand that any incorrect information provided will result in the disqualification of the application.

I have read and fully understood the Information Note that provides details of the Scholarship for which I am now applying, and I have read and agreed to the Notes on Handling of Information and Personal Data Supplied in the Application Form.
